

Acts for Paving and Lighting the TOWN 280 of CAMBRIDGE.

THE Restrictions and Provisions of these ACTS being calculated to promote the convenience of the Inhabitants at large, the Commissioners think it their duty to use their utmost endeavours for carrying them into effect, and have determined to put in force the encreased penalties of the last Act, if the directions thereof be not more generally and exactly observed.

The said Act directs, that every Inhabitant of Cambridge, and the Master of every College within the University, shall cause to be Swept and Cleaned the whole of the Foot Way, including the Kirb-Stone before their respective Houses, Buildings, Walls, Colleges and Halls, every day (except Saturday and Sunday) between the hours of six and ten in the forenoon, and between the hours of three in the afternoon, of every Saturday, and nine in the morning of every Sunday in the year. The Vice-Chancellor is also at the said days and times to cause the Footpath before the Senate-House and Senate-House Walk to be swept; and the Churchwardens of every Parish in Cambridge the Footpath before the Walls of their respective Parish Churches and Church Yards---penalty for each neglect FIVE SHILLINGS, to be recovered upon information (without Oath) before a Justice of the Peace; and the person who ought to have the Path complained of Swept, must prove his or her compliance with the Act, or otherwise pay the penalty.

The shewing of Stallions or any other Horses in the public streets is forbidden, under the penalty of FORTY SHILLINGS.

N. B. One Half to go to the Informer.

Killing any Beast, cleansing any Cask, sawing Timber, bleeding, shoeing, or dressing any Horse, making Mortar, Bull Baiting, Cock throwing, making Bonfires, or throwing Fire-Works in any of the public Streets, or exposing therein any articles of trade for sale (except the customary articles on market-days) or hanging out any article for sale, so as to project beyond the line of the window---penalty TWENTY SHILLINGS, to be recovered upon information as aforesaid.

Wilfully breaking any Lamp, or injuring the Lamp-Posts; Iron, or other furniture thereof---Penalty any sum not exceeding FIVE POUNDS, and not less than Forty Shillings. One half of the Penalty to go to the Informer, on conviction of the Offender.

N. B. As the breaking of Lamps has occasioned a very heavy expence to the Commissioners, it is hoped the Inhabitants will do what they can to detect the offenders within their several parishes. By Order,

ED. RANDALL, CLERK to the COMMISSIONERS.

Cambridge, Oct. 3d, 1794.
